Forward

As we look back through the halls which have been our world for so long, we wonder at the changes. Brocton Central is growing and with it grows the minds of its students.

The Yearbook captures one phase of this expansion. We have owned it for less than a year, it is yours from now on.

Editor

Dedication

Mr. Benjamin came to Brocton in 1933 after teaching two years in the Catskills. He is now part of the foundation upon which Brocton's honor and spirit depend.

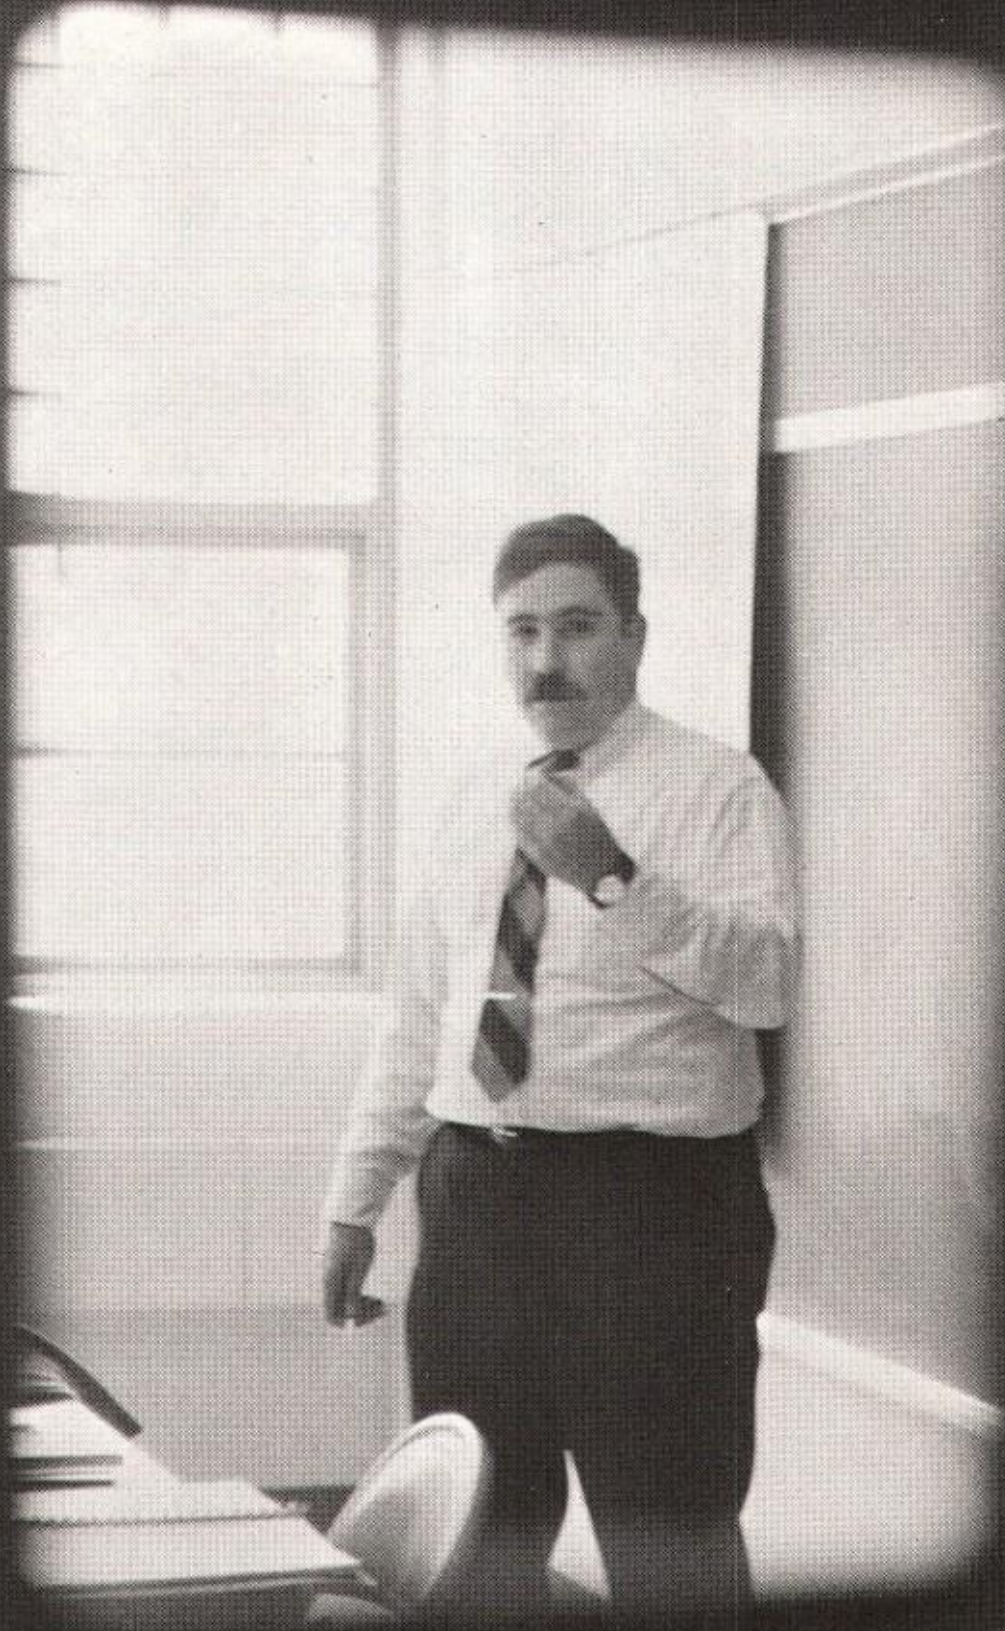

He received his education at the American College of Physical Education, Fredonia State Teachers College, Cornell University, and Ithaca College.

Through the years he has taught boys and girls gym classes, as well as coaching all the major sports at B.C.S., making them interesting and worthwhile. He is currently Athletic Director of Elementary Physical Education, Junior Varsity Basketball Coach and Volleyball Coach.

It is with a deep sense of pride that we dedicate the 1969 edition of La Liberté to W. Vincent Benjamin.

School Boards in general, and our School Board in particular, are not given credit for sound judgment or wise decisions because those that disagree are usually the most articulate. When you stop to consider that their decisions affect most of the taxpayers, most of the student body and most of the teachers, either as a group or as individuals, you can see why everyone may not be pleased with the action they may or may not take. Each of us must do our part by being patient with and appreciative of the effort and hard work this group puts forth for the benefit of the young people of our community.

Class History

The Senior Class embarked on their adventuresome course when they entered their Freshman year with Mr. Albert Hutcheson as class advisor. Leading the class were: Linda Tampio, President; Peter Musso, Vice-President; Jill Emmett, Secretary; and Janice Leone, Treasurer. Unfortunately, class activities were limited during this year.

Officers for our 1966-67 school year were elected at our first Sophomore Class meeting. Serving as President was Jill Emmett; Vice-President, Linda Tampio; Secretary, Janice Leone; Treasurer, Joanne Sciarrino and Class Advisor, Mr. Jack Glenzer. After elections took place, we eagerly looked forward to a busy year. Our first and only activity was a record hop featuring a dance contest on November 4th. All our other plans were never put into motion because it became necessary for our school to undergo an austerity program. In the spring, we ordered our class rings from the Herff Jones Company. At the close of the year, we looked forward to an active Junior year and our prom.

Choosing officers for our Junior year was very important, as we had much to accomplish. Thomas Rhodes was chosen to lead our class. The other officers were Beverly Richardson, Vice-President; Rand Hill, Secretary; and Gloria Sutton, Treasurer. Mr. Peter Miller accepted the difficult task as our advisor. Our first project was the profitable operation of the concession stand at all the home football games. In November, much to our delight, we received our class rings, which signified us as full-fledged Juniors. Soon after this, our Junior Literary Magazine, "Reflections of Thought" was placed on sale. It proved to be such a financial success that we sold a second edition later. During this year, we also sponsored two dances. Spring brought the arrival of our prom, entitled "Love Is Blue", and it was held at the White Inn on May 29th. As our Junior year drew to a close, we anticipated our most important year which awaited us after two months of summer vacation.

Entering our final year in the fall of 1968, our first interest as Seniors was to elect officers. Selected to guide our class were Mr. Lee A. Jones, Advisor; Douglas Zanghi, President; Rand Hill, Vice-President; Jill Emmett, Secretary; and Gloria Sutton, Treasurer. It didn't take long for our class to get back in the swing of things and on October 11th we held a Bermuda and Sweatshirt day. Also, on October 25th, we held our first and very successful Senior Dance. On October 31st, much to the shock of the teachers and underclassmen, the Seniors arrived dressed in hilarious costumes for Halloween. We even joined into the elementary grades Halloween parade. Suddenly, everyone settled down to serious business with our magazine sale. At the end of our sales, we were very proud to have sold $3400 worth of magazines! We ordered our Senior Portraits in October and received them at the beginning of December. The most memorable event in our Senior year was the production of the Senior Play, "The Curious Savage", written by John Patrick and directed by Mr. Anthony Bifaro.

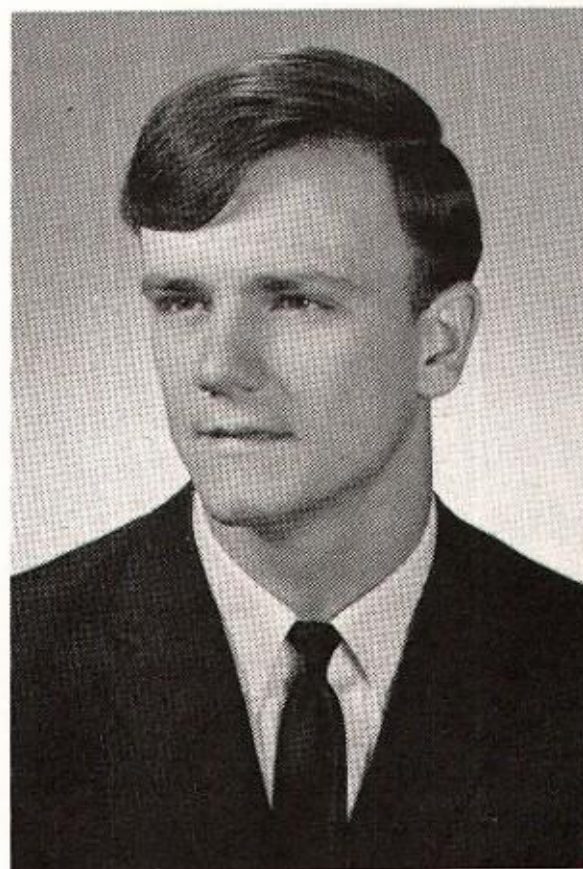

Now that our days at B.C.S. are numbered we find ourselves heeding the class motto, "Success in the future; memories behind." We have many happy and unforgettable memories to reminisce about, but now our minds are occupied with commencement and the future. As we leave the doors of this school, we will enter the great wide world and although distance may separate us, it can never break the ties of friendship that were formed among these halls.

The whole community was proud of the Brocton Central School football team this year. The team was undefeated with a won-lost column of 6-1-1. This included a tie with Pine Valley and a non-league loss to Delevan Machias, who later went on to an undefeated season in their league. The fact that Brocton won its last five games of the season last year, makes this an even more impressive achievement.

Sophomores, Juniors, and Seniors went in to making this prize-winning team. The Seniors will be missed next year as they played many key positions, however, we would like to express this wish—may next year's team be as successful as this year's.

Congratulations to the undefeated 1969 "C" League Champions!
